   - School Account staff can access titles publisher-defined audience levels of "juvenile" "young adult," and/or "adult."

   If School Account does not group its students on grade level as shown above, then student access will be provided based on School Account's available grouping (e.g., a School Account's "Primary/Elementary" group would be granted access to "juvenile" titles).

   Publisher-defined audience levels for titles cannot be changed for the public library collection. School Account can request adjustments to the grade levels that can access certain audience levels of titles.
