A 2019 Caldecott Honor Book

What's in a name? For one little girl, her very long name tells the vibrant story of where she came from — and who she may one day be.

If you ask her, Alma Sofia Esperanza José Pura Candela has way too many names: six! How did such a small person wind up with such a large name? Alma turns to Daddy for an answer and learns of Sofia, the grandmother who loved books and flowers; Esperanza, the great-grandmother who longed to travel; José, the grandfather who was an artist; and other namesakes, too. As she hears the story of her name, Alma starts to think it might be a perfect fit after all — and realizes that she will one day have her own story to tell. In Alma and How She Got Her Name, Juana Martinez-Neal's debut,

Are you just interested in starting a makerspace because it is a trend or a buzzword you have heard?

Are you interested in starting a makerspace because it is something you see other people doing and you feel like you should be doing it, too?

There needs to be more to it than that—because your purpose for planning a makerspace will strongly influence the quality of the makerspace.

It is important to be able to discover the purpose of your makerspace.
